

Baja Desert Culture & History San Javier Mission Tour

Experience the Baja that few visitors see. Get a closer look at Baja's history and culture. Loreto was the first settlement by the Spanish in all of California, and from here, small missions were created along the entire peninsula. You will travel to the historic San Javier Mission that stands in its original form since 1744. Upon arrival, you'll enjoy a tour of the mission and an introduction to life in this small village by a local guide. San Javier only recently got electricity! You will also visit a local farm and learn to make tortillas by hand after a walk through the orchards and a warm lunch. Maximum 12 passengers per van.
