

Loreto Transportation Guide

Travel to Loreto:

The Loreto Airport (LTO) is serviced by Alaska Airlines direct from Los Angeles International Airport (LAX). The flights from LAX to LTO are typically in the morning. Depending on where you are traveling from, you may need to arrive in Los Angeles a day early and stay overnight in a hotel near the Airport. Many LAX Airport hotels offer a free shuttle service to and from the Airport. Westjet has seasonal Saturday service (Mid February - May) direct from Calgary (YYC) to Loreto (LTO). The Tijuana Int'l Airport (TIJA) offers regular flights through AeroMexico, Volaris Airlines, and AereoCalafia. With the new Cross Border Express you can walk across the U.S.-Mexico border via skybridge in less than 10 minutes. Fly into San Diego International, take a 30 minute cab, shuttle or bus to the CBX facility in San Diego's Otay Mesa area, print your CBX ticket, and walk across the skybridge to the Tijuana Airport.

As flight options for Loreto are limited, we recommend making your reservations as soon as your ROW Sea Kayak Adventures tour is confirmed.

Airport Transfer Loreto:

Airport transfer to and from the tour hotel is NOT included in your trip cost. Upon arrival at the Loreto Airport, make your way to the curb outside the main exit. Cabs are plentiful, and you can catch one for the transfer from the airport to the tour hotel. The short ride from the airport into town will cost you approximately $10-20 USD ($170-340 Pesos). There will likely be other ROW Sea Kayak Adventures guests on your flight into Loreto. Keep an eye out for the matching luggage tags, and if you are comfortable, share a cab into town with a fellow traveler.

Bus Information :

In general, Baja has good bus transportation options between its major cities. We recommend Aguila Auto Transportation for this service. Tickets can be purchased ahead of time on-line or at the station upon arrival. Regular service runs from the city of San Jose del Cabo to the La Paz Malecon or the Loreto City Center. If you plan to utilize bus service from San Jose del Cabo you will need to take a taxi from the airport to the bus station. Please note that the majority of ticketing agents and drivers will only speak Spanish.
